

County Executive (11)

Youth Bureau (11_0400)

- ✓ Administration and oversight responsibilities continue to be provided. All funded programs are required to be assessed and monitored by Youth Bureau staff throughout the course of the funding year. Monitoring includes site visits inclusive of Program Quality Assessments, monthly and quarterly narratives and annual reports. The Youth Bureau assesses the extent to which programs are meeting goals and objectives through the web based data reporting on performance measures.
- ✓ The Youth Bureau continues to meet its obligation of developing a Youth Bureau Annual Administrative Summary inclusive of service provisions for runaway and homeless youth. This summary verifies the use of Youth Bureau Administrative state aid and ensures compliance with YDP and RHYA regulations. The summary provides the opportunity for the Youth Bureau to describe staffing, structure and reporting, procedures for allocating state aid and procedures for monitoring and evaluating funded programs. This also allows the Youth Bureau to capture and provide information regarding the numbers of youth served, significant accomplishments, additional funding leveraged by the agency and initiatives for which the Youth Bureau collaborates with other departments and/or serves on committees designed to address population level issues. Examples include:
- ✓ The Executive Director is a member of GRIP (Gender Responsive Interventions and Partnerships), formerly known as the Westchester Girls Justice Initiative Advisory Council (GJI) led by Judge Kathie Davidson and the New York State Unified Court System and in partnership with the New York State Permanent Judicial Commission on Justice for Children, the New York University Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development and the New York State Division of Criminal Justice Services. This initiative addresses policy issues concerning girls within the juvenile justice system through the collection of data in the examination of trauma informed and gender specific interventions. GJI is currently working to establish a Girls Court.
- ✓ The Youth Bureau serves as a resource for community stakeholders for the newly created Emerging Adult Justice Initiative in the city of Mt. Vernon. The initiative seeks to design age appropriate solutions to justice for this emerging adult population who comes before the courts in the City of Mt. Vernon as an alternative to incarceration.
- ✓ The Executive Director is a member of the Criminal Justice Advisory Board which is led by the Department of Probation and comprised of 30 members representing various criminal justice and community agencies including the judiciary, law enforcement (police, correction, probation, parole), district attorney, mental health, Youth Bureau, legal aid, drug/alcohol treatment and educational providers. The aim of the CJAB is to develop strategies and programs that ensure alternatives to incarceration.
- ✓ The Executive Director is a member of the Mid-Hudson regional youth Juvenile Justice Team. This team aims to increase and enhance positive youth development by deterring juveniles from becoming involved in delinquent behavior. Schools, faith based organizations, local youth centers, social service providers, etc. are all integral to the constructive development of all children in the Mid-Hudson Region. Another aim is to investigate the effectiveness of law enforcement support for youth at the entry points into the criminal juvenile justice system to avoid further consequences.
- ✓ The Executive Director serves on the Hudson Valley My Brother's Keeper Alliance, designed to improve academic, social and employment outcomes for males of color.
- ✓ The Program Administrator serves on the Westchester Co-occurring System of Care Initiative along with the Departments of Community Mental Health and Social Services.
- ✓ The Program Administrator oversees the RHY Advisory Committee.
- ✓ The Youth Bureau participates in the DSS operated Westchester Building Futures initiative which is a youth and community driven two year planning process designed to prevent homelessness amongst youth emerging from the County's child welfare system.
- ✓ The Program Administrator continues to participate in the Westchester Coalition for Drug and Alcohol Prevention.
- ✓ The Program Administrator participates in the Mental Health First Aid Steering Committee
- ✓ The Program Administrator participates in Youth Bureaus Youth Development monthly call series for Positive Youth Development information from across NYS.
